DAVE

Nose

Moist and vinous. Some orange, slightly waxy, tinned pineapple then moves to fruit cake mix with dry cereal behind. Water adds another layer. Slightly damp wood though.

Palate

Fresh though there's an underpinning of dried fruit (fig). A little flat in the middle.

Finish

Picks up a very late burst of energy.

Comments

It's trying so hard to be the life and soul of the party, but hasn't the personality to do so.

MARTINE

Nose

Malty with a citrusy tone. A real fruit salad: tangerines, oranges, lemons. Starbust sweets (sour lemon and orange).

Palate

Clean and crisp. Easy flowing. Releases all the appetising fruity notes of the nose.

Finish

Lusciously lingering. With this pleasant clean character. Spicy. Ginger. Nutty.

Comments

A structured and well integrated dram. With a real natural complexity. To be enjoyed with good pals. Definitely uplifting.
